The Psych Drama Company
in association with The Audiovisual Center Dubrovnik
presents:

10th Anniversary International Season
Special Collaborator Spotlight

Macbeth Composer

ZARKO DRAGOJEVIC

Born in 1987, Zarko Dragojevic is the project leader for The Audiovisual Center Dubrovnik and partner of the Art Workshop Lazareti. He has worked on over 60 productions for the Marin Držić Theater in Dubrovnik, Croatia

In the past decade, Zarko has collaborated with Croatia's most prominent domestic and regional directors. Most recently, he composed original scores of music for A Streetcar Named Desire and Masquerades at the Marin Držić Theater.

Zarko formed the band Embassy 516 while pursuing a master's degree in journalism and political communication at Zagreb University. As a journalist, he has since become a fervent advocate for social change.

Zarko has composed music for a number of TV, radio, and multimedia projects; his most notable project being a documentary Beyond Medals, about the life of trophy-winning Dubrovnik swimmer, Mihovil Spanja.

In 2013, Zarko founded The Audiovisual Center Dubrovnik (AVCD), an award winning Croatian nonprofit organization devoted to interdisciplinary and multimedia programs.

The AVCD cultivates artistic ventures with a modern, 21st century sensibility. At its core, the AVCD is dedicated to the City of Dubrovnik's overall cultural development with an emphasis on multimedia workshops, childhood education, and collaborations with institutions and other non governmental organizations. In 2020, the AVCD's mission was further strengthened by Dubrovnik's candidacy for the European Capital of Culture.

The AVCD have worked closely with many European cultural development experts, including Nina Obuljen Koržinek, Ph.D., the Croatian Minister of Culture. In 2015, the AVCD's film Loser won the 53rd Children's Film Festival award for "Best Movie."

New for our September 2021 audio dramas, to best support our patrons in different time zones across the world, are On Demand tickets which allow the flexibility of listening to these audio dramas anytime within a 24-hour period. Tickets are now on sale via OnTheStage.com, and profits from these ticket sales will go directly into the pockets of all artists involved in these productions. Individual tickets are $30.00 and Family tickets are $40.00. Press preview dates to be announced soon.
